

DAS KS1 Cycle A Summer 1

What can be learnt from sacred books?

Qur'an	A special books for Muslims, believed to be God's word.
Bible	A special book for Christians, believed to be God's word.
Torah	A special text for Jewish people, believed to be God's word.
scripture	Sacred writings – often in a book or scroll.
parable	A story with a moral message.
sacred	Connected to God or religion.

The Qur'an is written in Arabic.

Books and stories can be special
to people for lots of reasons.
People enjoy books and can learn from them.

Muslims often keep the Qur'an on a high shelf and use a stand when reading it. This shows care and respect.

The Torah is written in Hebrew. The scroll is handwritten and a Yad is used to read it.

The Torah has the same stories as the first five books in the Christian Bible.

The Christian Bible contains lots of famous stories.
Some are also in the Qur'an and the Torah.

