

Monday 3rd July 2023

Dear Parent / Carer,

I am writing to provide an update in light of the formal dispute between the National Education Union (NEU) and the Secretary of State because of a national dispute around pay and funding between the education unions and the government, and not because of any issues at our school or within the Trust. As a school and in accordance with government guidance, it has been our intention to remain open, throughout the strikes. I'm grateful to the staff for giving me notice of their intention to strike rather than telling me on the morning of the strike which would cause greater disruption to parents.

You are aware further strike action is scheduled for Wednesday 5th July and Friday 7th July 2023.

Wednesday 5th July: OPEN AS NORMAL TO ALL PUPILS.

Friday 5th July: Having carefully considered which staff are on site, we will be open to the following classes and it is expected that they attend school as normal on Friday.

- Dolphins
- Seahorses

There will be limited additional provision in place on Friday 7th July for pupils in Years 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6. Attendance will be prioritised for children of critical workers as defined by:

- Pupils who have both parents/carers (or the parent/carers is a single parent family) as critical workers.
- Critical workers will be considered as those working in the NHS, emergency services, working in education or Social Care.

If you would like to request one of these places, please complete the form via the link below. The deadline for submitting the form is Wednesday 5th July at 10am.

- Pupils who are on the child protection register (CP) or identified as a child in need (CIN).

We understand the uncertainty this brings, but the safety and wellbeing of our pupils is our paramount concern. I am extremely sorry about the potential disruption the strike action will have on you and to your child's education. I understand that this situation may be frustrating, and ask that all members of our school community continue to treat each other with respect.

Thank you for your cooperation,
